

Cascading Pleats Card

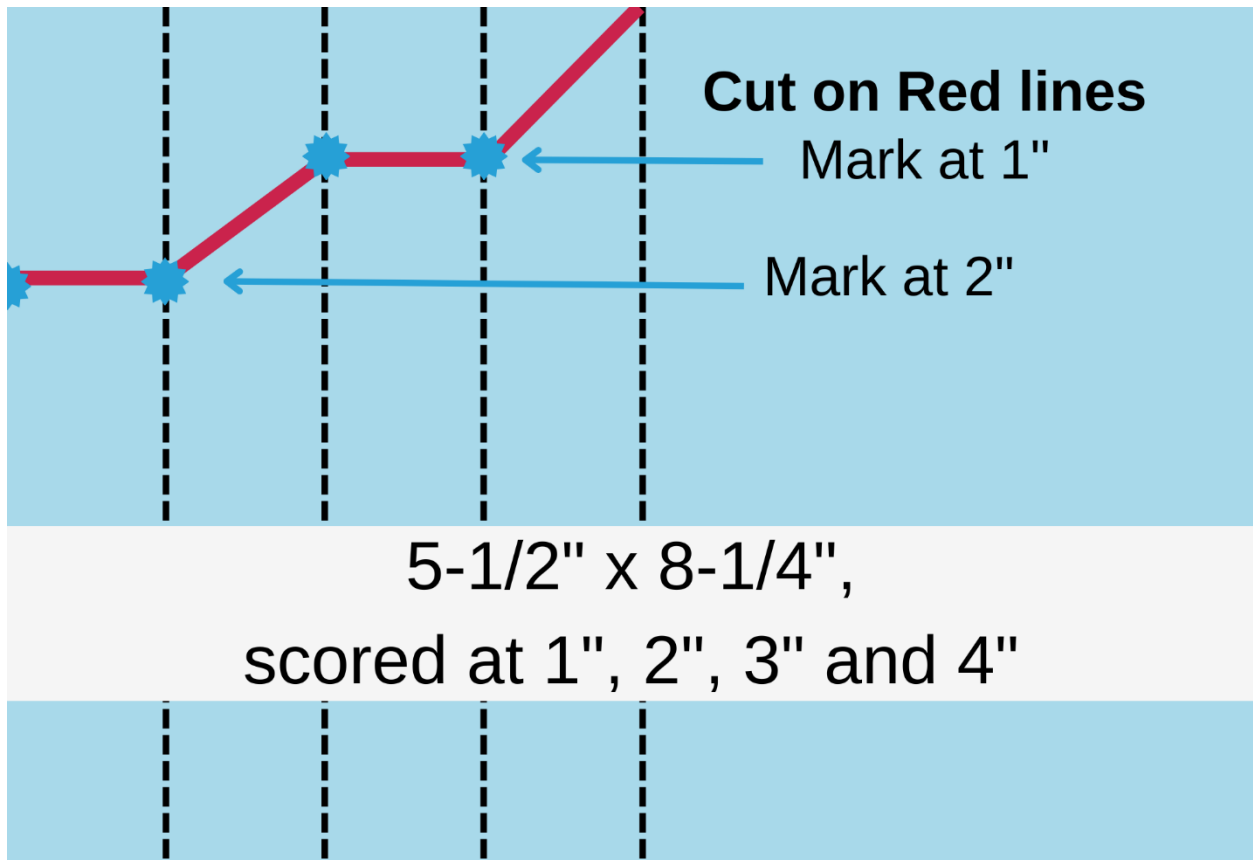

This is a WOW Fun Fold card that features 3 panels cascading downward. It stands nicely on its own for display and will fit (snugly) in a medium envelope.

This tutorial includes a template with measurements, a supply list for what I used on my sample, and a closer look at each of the panels.

I hope that you'll try this fun fold card with the supplies you have on hand. If you'd like to share your creations with me, tag me @thestampdoc on social media or email me at
